• MUSIC ZONE

2 Meter Sessions Stage – hosted by Jan Douwe Kroeske

For the first time, the legendary Dutch music platform 2 Meter Sessions takes the spotlight at Record Planet in 's-Hertogenbosch. A dedicated live stage and vinyl stand bring almost four decades of iconic studio performances right into the heart of Europe's largest record fair.

On the 2 Meter Sessions Stage, founder and presenter Jan Douwe Kroeske welcomes a standout line-up for interviews and live performances, including British singer-songwriter Mike d'Abo (formerly of Manfred Mann) and Dutch indie favourites Bettie Serveert, Hallo Venray and De Harde Liefde. After each session, artists will be available to sign their new releases.

Founded in 1987, 2 Meter Sessions began on radio (1987–2011), expanded to television (from 1993), and later reached a global audience online via platforms such as YouTube. The format is simple and powerful: artists perform live in an intimate studio setting—captured in recordings celebrated for authenticity, exceptional sound, and a distinctive atmosphere.

Over the years, 2 Meter Sessions has hosted everyone from emerging talent to world-renowned names including James Taylor, Elliott Smith, David Crosby, Damien Jurado, Ben Howard, Radiohead, Nirvana, Coldplay and Foo Fighters. Many recordings have become cult favourites among collectors, prized for capturing artists at pivotal moments and revealing new dimensions of well-known songs through intimate, alternative arrangements.

Between 1991 and 2011, 2 Meter Sessions also built a highly successful compilation catalogue in close collaboration with major labels including Universal Music Group, Sony Music Entertainment and Virgin Records. With more than 900,000 copies sold, the catalogue became a remarkable commercial success and further cemented the brand's reputation for quality, authenticity and musical craftsmanship.

At Record Planet, expect a carefully curated vinyl selection alongside a rich live programme, rare archival stories, unique perspectives behind celebrated recordings, and a tribute to the enduring bond between live performance and vinyl culture.

• INTERVIEW

Special guest: Mike d'Abo

This edition, Charly Records brings a very special guest to Record Planet: Mike d'Abo, British singer and songwriter, best known as the lead vocalist of Manfred Mann from 1966 to 1969, and as the writer of timeless classics such as "Handbags and Gladrags" and "Build Me Up Buttercup." With Manfred Mann, Mike d'Abo scored multiple UK Top 20 hits, including "Semi-Detached Suburban Mr. James," "Ha! Ha! Said The Clown," and the chart-topping "Mighty Quinn." And there is more: in an exclusive Record Planet premiere, visitors will have the unique opportunity to purchase a limited edition single by Mike d'Abo, released especially ahead of his new album, which is scheduled for June. This exclusive edition is only available at the fair.

Do not miss this rare opportunity. Buy your copy and have it signed by Mike d'Abo in person. Visitors can also see Mike d'Abo in conversation with Jan Douwe Kroeske (2 Meter Sessions) at the Record Planet Music Zone on both days:

• LIVE PERFORMANCE + INTERVIEW

Bettie Serveert Live + Interview

Hosted by Jan Douwe Kroeske
(2 METER SESSIONS)

One of the most influential names in Dutch indie rock is coming to the Record Planet Music Zone. On Saturday 11 April, Bettie Serveert joins us for an intimate interview and live performance, hosted by Jan Douwe Kroeske (2 Meter Sessions), followed by a signing session.

Formed in Amsterdam in 1990, Bettie Serveert became a standout force in the 1990s alternative scene with their jangly, melodic, guitar-driven sound and the unmistakable voice of Carol van Dijk. Their landmark debut Palomine grew into a cult classic, and with a career spanning more than three decades, the band remains celebrated for their songwriting, enduring creativity, and dynamic live shows in the Netherlands and far beyond.

This appearance also marks a special moment tied to the legacy of the 2 Meter Sessions: the launch of a brand-new vinyl compilation featuring a selection of the band's most memorable 2 Meter Sessions recordings. Capturing the unmistakable

• LP PRE-RELEASE & LIVE PERFORMANCE

Hallo Venray – Exclusive LP Pre-Release & Live Shows

Hosted by Jan Douwe Kroeske
(2 METER SESSIONS)

Exclusive at Record Planet: pre-release of The Hallo Venray – Live on 2 Meter Sessions LP – available before the official release date of 17 April.

Visitors will have the first opportunity to purchase this special LP during an exclusive pre-release weekend. Even better: you can have your copy signed immediately after the performance during the meet & greet. The LP features 10 tracks recorded live during the legendary 2 Meter Sessions on November 10, 1993. A year earlier, the band had broken through with their album The More I Laugh, the Hornier Due Gets!, followed by the equally powerful A Million Planes to Fly. Both records became true classics in the Dutch alternative scene, and highlights from these iconic albums were performed during those renowned 2 Meter Sessions. The recording captures Hallo Venray at a pivotal moment, raw, driven and at the height of their creative force.

A respected name in the Dutch alternative scene for nearly four decades, Hallo Venray is celebrated for musical innovation and an unmistakably authentic spirit. Their sound is atmospheric and sometimes almost hypnotic, blending alternative rock energy with subtle psychedelic edges. With 12 albums to their name, the band continues to evolve while staying true to their singular artistic vision. Their latest release, Coffee and Cake, is widely regarded by many fans as one of their strongest records to date.

Catch Hallo Venray live on both Saturday and Sunday in the Record Planet Music Zone. Expect a high-energy show where the sparks fly, delivered with the band's trademark wit and charisma.

• ALBUM RELEASE & LIVE PERFORMANCE

De Harde Liefde

Luid en lyrisch, warm en ritmisch, stevig en poëtisch. De Harde Liefde klinkt precies zoals de naam belooft. De band maakt Nederlandse folkrock met een eigen karakter: energiek en meeslepend, maar altijd met ruimte voor nuance. Want bij De Harde Liefde staan tekst en muziek niet naast elkaar, ze grijpen in elkaar als verhalen met meerdere lagen.

De band werd opgericht door zanger en liedjesschrijver Ewoud Kieft, die naast zijn muziek al jaren boeken schrijft. Dat literaire oor hoor je terug in elke song. Samen met gitarist Bart Schoones (Stek, Tasmanian Devils), drummer Zoli Soos (Puliek Geheim, Vinsky Project, Zorita) en bassist Said Ennaji (FES, Eskorakas) bouwt De Harde Liefde aan een live-reputatie die zowel de literaire wereld als het popcircuit aanspreekt. Ze stonden op festivals als Woordnacht en Manuscripta, en in zalen als Cinetol, De Nieuwe Anita en De Flux.

Wie ze live ziet, snapt meteen waarom: 3voor12/NH was na een show in april '25 enthousiast en noemde het 'een lekkere vibe, van intiem naar groot en weer terug' met de veelzeggende conclusie: "Het is leuk en smaakt naar meer." Ook Oor en 3voor12 schreven lovend over eerdere projecten van Kieft, met quotes als 'knappe composities vol improvisatie, rock, jazz, country, humor en liefde' (Oor) en 'knap gecomponeerd en geproduceerd, maar bovenal mooi en sterk' (3voor12/Amsterdam).

In januari 2026 verscheen het debuutalbum Over de Rand op Concerto Records en dat wordt op zondag 12 april feestelijk gevierd bij de Record Planet Music Zone.

Kom luisteren, laat je meeslepen door de songs, en ontdek een band die je bij de eerste noten al het gevoel geeft dat je ze al jaren kent maar die je tóch blijft verrassen.

• EXHIBITION

DUB FEVER

— a rare dub cover exhibition

Step into DUB FEVER, a visual deep-dive into one of reggae's most inventive offshoots. For two days only, Saturday 11 & Sunday 12 April, you can explore a handpicked selection of 100 rare and iconic dub LP sleeves, exhibited in Hall 2 at the Mega Record & CD Fair.

All covers come from the private collection of Aad Brakus (The Hague), a lifelong dub devotee whose journey took him from discovering early Jamaican sounds in the 1960s to digging for records across the UK, and later travelling to Jamaica to connect with legendary producers and studios. Over the years, that passion grew into a remarkable archive of dub history and for this exhibition, Aad has selected 100 standout sleeves that capture the spirit, mystery, and design language of dub's golden era.

Dub was born in Kingston's studios at the end of the 1960s, when engineers and producers began stripping tracks down to bass and drums, then rebuilding them with echo, reverb, and radical studio effects. It was remix culture before the world had a name for it, and by the mid-to-late 1970s, dub albums became cult objects for collectors, with sleeves ranging from minimal DIY designs to bold, unmistakable "DUB" statements.

To celebrate the exhibition, a very limited screen-printed sleeve edition (inspired by a mid-'70s dub classic) will be launched at the fair, a true collector's item for those who know.

Aad will be present throughout the expo, together with fellow vinyl friends, ready to chat, share stories, and answer questions. Even if you're just discovering dub, the artwork alone is worth the visit and with so many legendary covers on display, you'll leave with fresh listening inspiration (and probably a longer wantlist).

• VINYL RELEASE

Excelsior Recordings & Ja! the iconic 2006 Spinvis album

Released on vinyl for the very first time: Ja!, the iconic 2006 Spinvis album built around the texts and spoken-word performances of Simon Vinkenoog (1928–2009). At the time of its original release, the album received little attention, but it has since become recognised as a true cult classic. Back then, Ja! paved the way for a series of legendary performances by the Vinkenoog/Spinvis combination.

The fact that Ja! is finally being released as an LP is connected in part to the third edition of Poëzie in Carré on 13 April, an event originally initiated by Simon Vinkenoog in 1966. Spinvis will take part in this year's edition, and the title track will very likely be included in the programme.

Book Launch: Nederblues – The story behind a raw and unforgettable chapter in Dutch music history

From around 1965 onwards, something remarkable began to happen in the Netherlands: the blues developed a sound of its own, raw, energetic and full of character. Bands such as Cuby + Blizzards, Bintangs, Livin' Blues, Brainbox and the Oscar Benton Blues Band laid the foundations for what we now know as Nederblues, a movement that still resonates to this day.

In Nederblues, authors Loek Dekker and Ben Maarleveld tell this story in a clear and chronological way, enriched with context, anecdotes and first-hand memories. The book follows the rise and often turbulent careers of the most important Nederblues bands: from breakthrough years and internal struggles to break-ups, comebacks and, in some cases, musical journeys that continue more than 60 years later.

Alongside the best-known names, the book also gives prominent attention to Barrelhouse, featuring singer Tineke Schoemaker and the Laporte brothers as well as Flavium and Magic Frankie, all of them honoured in the Dutch Blues Hall of Fame. The book concludes by looking at the state of Nederblues today, showing how this powerful Dutch blues tradition continues to inspire new generations.

What makes this launch at Record Planet particularly special is that the story will not only be told on the page it will also come alive at the fair itself. A remarkable number of artists and key figures from the Nederblues scene will be present in person, making this book presentation a unique opportunity to meet the musicians behind this rich musical history.

This rare gathering of so many artists from the Nederblues scene makes the fair an unmissable moment for blues lovers, collectors and anyone interested in Dutch music history. Come and listen, take a step back in time, meet the artists, and celebrate the launch of a book that finally gives this remarkable musical legacy the stage it deserves.

Live book launch with artists from the scene

SATURDAY 11 APRIL

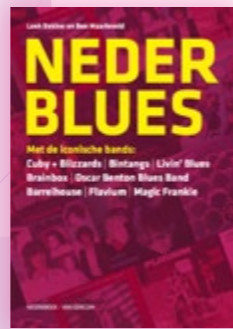

11:15 – 11:30 Stage interview: Jaap van Eik & Tineke Schoemaker

Jaap van Eik, bassist for bands including The Moans, Cuby + Blizzards, Trace, Livin' Blues and Solution, will join Tineke Schoemaker, the powerful and unmistakable voice of Barrelhouse, for a special on-stage interview. Together, they will share stories, memories and personal reflections that bring the world of Nederblues vividly to life.

11:30 – 12:00 Meet & Greet stand

Visitors will have the chance to purchase a copy of Nederblues and have it personally signed and dedicated by Jaap van Eik and Tineke Schoemaker.

Because so many artists from the Nederblues world will be attending the fair, the launch of Nederblues becomes much more than a book presentation. It will be a live celebration of the music, the memories and the people who shaped this enduring scene.

Saturday Hall 2 Music Zone + Stand 341

12:00 – 14:00 Stand 341, Hall 2

Even more artists and icons from the Nederblues scene will be present at the stand, including:
